

Jim Bartholomew

1,2,and 3 piece

During the last four decades, Jim Bartholomew has been an entertainer. From his earliest days, Jim has considered among his foremost influences the great crooners of popular music, the singers and songwriters of Rock 'n' Roll, Rockabilly, the British Invasion, traditional Country & Western, and Soul music.

Jim began performing in the small folk clubs in Chicago, to the largest stages in the nation. He has appeared on stages with some of the largest names in the Country and Rock Music fields and has distinguished himself in a solo setting and as the featured singer with some of the most popular bar bands in Chicago. His vocal style blends soulful stylings of Motown and Memphis as well as gritty sounds of Cajun New Orleans and Blue Chicago and heartfelt Roots and Americana Music.

Jim loves performing the songs of his favorite artists, some very popular and some fairly obscure, but always the best of the best, marked with his own unique stamp. Most of all Jim is a consummate songwriter whose songs are creative and honest, stories about the emotions we feel most and can all relate to.

Jim is at home performing in any setting, a crowded barroom, coffee house, corporate event, retirement home, or private party in your living room. His repertoire covers generations and his catalogue is vast. His set list is fluid and molds itself to the wishes and vibes of the audience. He captures his audience with his quick wit, solid guitar playing, and soulful voice.

Jim Bartholomew will delight your audience with his blend of originals and covers. Jim brings with him decades of experience and a professional attitude. Jim genuinely has fun and always brings his audience along for the ride.

Jim Bartholomew: a singer with style and experience, and a crowd pleasing performer in any setting.

For Booking Information Contact:
Patrick M Cline
Patrick Cline Productions

630-916-1946
patrick@patrickclineproductions.com

Listen to Jim @ www.reverbNation.com/jimbartholomew