4 Guys, 11 Instruments, 94 Strings, and 1 Washtub Bass

Pitchy And The 44s has a folk style and a jug band feel except there is no jug. There is a fusion of jazz, gypsy, blues, and a few other styles thrown in for good measure.

In four decades guitar player Rick Fazio has become quite a player with his own unique style that has other guitarists take notice.

As an electric washtub bass player Steve “Boom Boom” Brownstein has become as important to the band’s sound as anyone. His sound defines the music and keeps it always in the pocket.

Dave Lombardi is the singer and front man of Pitchy And The 44s. Dave plays guitar, zither, bazouki, banjo, bells, whistles and a hot mandolin.

Drummer, percussionist Bob Melville keeps perfect time for the band. The sound is always incredible with Bob's incredible beat.

With decades of experience Pitchy And The 44s are just what the doctor ordered to keep your audience engaged and enjoying their eclectic, unique stylings.
